Tasting Notes

The 2003 Martha's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon delivers a sensuous purple hue of rich varietal fruit embraced by its signature aroma of vibrant mint.

Tiers of opulent black cherry unfold with a light etching of silky chocolate. Gracefully balanced with firm tannins, an astute use of oak and bright acidity, this elegant wine is long on flavor as well as aging potential.

There is a limited offering of this aristocratic Cabernet --- sure to be a wonderful addition to your table or cellar.
